

A black and white photograph of a narrow, cobblestone street in a city. The street is lined with multi-story buildings. In the foreground, several children are playing on the cobblestones. One child is bending over, another is standing nearby, and a boy is on a bicycle. The scene is brightly lit, with long shadows cast across the street. The text 'OCTOBRE NOVEMBRE DÉCEMBRE 2016' is overlaid in the upper left corner.
